Dearest parents,

What a week! The kids are already “checked out” for the week and it's only Monday. Hang in there though, I am praying for you and I know that the family time during Thanksgiving will be not only special but will help you to focus on what matters most, making an impact on their future as you spend time together. Have great conversations and go into Thanksgiving with some fun discussion questions. Here is a site, I recommend printing them out and placing them in a jar. Allow your kids to pick them out to keep them engaged, let them pick who answers first! <https://www.skiptomylou.org/dinner-conversation-starters/>

In addition to the holiday fun that's about to snowball into Christmas, we have some dates that we will not be meeting for Amplify and uTH, be sure to check out our Newsletter for those dates! Also we have our SuperHero Christmas Parties coming up as well as a FREE Christmas Worship Concert open to our community. They came last year as well and were phenomenal! We don't think you're going to want to miss out!

Finally, the topic of social media is a tough one and we are right alongside of you. It can be a struggle at the dinner table as well as when our students are wrestling with seeing friends having fun without them. There is still time to talk with your teens and there is time if you haven't already breeched the subject to begin to have that talk long before they want it. Why? You want to be able to give them the tools in advance that will help them to use these platforms in a responsible way. We'd like you to check out and share our latest blogpost: How Social Media Can Affect Our Teen's Ability to “Real Life”

Have an amazing week, we are praying for you all and wish you a Happy Thanksgiving. Please continue to let us know topics that you would like to see/hear covered in our blogposts and video!
